

A1 in Northumberland
Morpeth to Felton scheme
Consultation response form

18 June 2018 to 29 July 2018

Consultation response form

We want to understand your views on our proposals to improve the A1 in Northumberland between Morpeth and Felton. This form has been designed to help you provide your feedback.

We recommend that you read the accompanying consultation brochure, which sets out the proposed design for the scheme, and the other supporting documents, before you complete it. You may also wish to attend one of the public exhibitions that are being held during the consultation period. Details of the events being held can be found at the front of the brochure, or on our webpage: www.highwaysengland.co.uk/A1inNorthumberland

How to give us your views

Please complete this form, and return it using the freepost address envelope. Or you can complete it online at: www.highwaysengland.co.uk/A1inNorthumberland

Completed forms can also be left at any of the public exhibitions being held during the consultation period.

The closing date for responses to this consultation is 23:59 on Sunday 29 July 2018.

About you

If you would like us to update you on the outcome of the consultation and the next stages in the project please give us your contact details. If you'd prefer to stay anonymous, please just provide your postcode – this is needed for the purpose of data analysis.

On 25 May 2018, the General Data Protection Regulations (GDPR) came into force. This legislation requires Highways England to explain to consultees, stakeholders and customers how their personal data will be used and stored.

Highways England adheres to the Government's Consultation Principles, the Planning Act 2008 and the Highways Act 1980 as required, and may collect personal data to help shape development of highways schemes.

Personal data collected for the A1 in Northumberland Morpeth to Felton will be processed and retained by Highways England and its appointed contractors until the scheme is complete.

Under the GDPR regulations you have the right to request the following information from us:

1. Right of access to the data (Subject Access Request);
2. Right for the rectification of errors;
3. Right to erasure of personal data – this is not an absolute right under the legislation;
4. Right to restrict processing or to object to processing and
5. Right to data portability.

If, at any point, Highways England plans to process the personal data we hold for a purpose other than that for which it was originally collected, we will provide you with information about what that other purpose is. This will be done prior to any further processing taking place. The extra information will include any relevant further information as referred to above, including the right to object to that further processing.

You have the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, the Information Commissioners Office.
